	Question: Additional comments about instructor
Koch	n/a
Koch	He's very to the point and effective
Koch	Great knowing how passionate he is about his job!
Koch	He is a really good professor and helped bring his own life experiences into his lessons which allowed a more personal understanding on how sociological views are incorporated into our daily lives.
Koch	I wasn't able to stay the entire time because I had a lab across campus right after, but when I was there I enjoyed the way he taught.
Koch	Overall a great professor and genuine person. Will recommend his class for others. Learned a lot from this class.
Koch	Dr. Koch is very thoughtful towards his students, entertaining to listen to, and always provided a magic trick half way through to ease the length of the class time (it was my favorite part).
Koch	it always well giving a helping hand
Koch	By far the most fun and interesting course I have ever taken in my life. He is incredibly kind and funny. You can tell he loves what he does and I am very happy I got to be in his class. He teaches the material in an easy to understand way and in a way that makes you invested. Some days it felt like I wasn't even in a "lecture" but a conversation, being told a story, or taught a life lesson all while I was actually being taught the material needed. It was very easy to engage with the content and to come out of class having learned something and not feeling miserable like some of my other classes.
Koch	Dr. Koch was a great professor and really made me interested in sociology
Koch	I really enjoy the small dad jokes and the magic tricks. It brings the class together and have a little fun.
Koch	very funny
Koch	He is a very fun and engaged teacher!
Koch	The instructor would leave a recording in the modules for each class, which made it easier to go back and relearn what was discussed during class. I also really enjoyed his magic shows; they were entertaining and a good brain break!
Koch	My favorite class by far this semester. Magic tricks were 10/10!
Koch	he is a very good person
Koch	no.
Koch	Continue teaching the course the way you do, I enjoyed it. I wish you luck into the rest of your career and so on!

	Question: Most effective learning aspects of course
	It was good
	Magic Tricks
	The amount of exams there were because it was able to help your grade if you didn't do very well on one of them.
	ideas to ethics essays- they challenge you to think deeper than in class discussion
	The essay prompts helped me think a lot about my life.
	A lot of topics are assigned through essays which takes creativity into learning
	Professor Koch showed up to class every day and was consistent with his materials and lectures which led students to success. He was effective in his way of consistency that allowed students to never get behind as he always had class and posted lecture recordings in case students couldn't make it. His lectures were engaging and the materials were as well.
	The lecture, in addition to the way Dr. Koch structured his canvas page, was very easy to follow, informative, and had options if you missed the lecture or simply forgot some point he made.
	making us think and write interesting essays.
	Having the lectures posted was helpful for reviewing any missed or important information.
	The days we reviewed before quizzes made me understand the material best

	the ideas to ethics
	Engaging lectures from the beginning to end.
	The fact that he made the lectures entertaining and interactive so it was easy to pay attention and learn.
	the communication
	Engaging lectures
	The most effective was when he would act the perspective out one side for conflict and one side for functionalist. Literally the most incredible professor I have had this semester also his personal opinions did not affect the over all class.
	how he connected the topic we were on to real life situations went into detail
	The reviews before the exams
	The review before the tests and having the tests open note because it helped me remember what I learned and the concepts from the lectures stuck better and easier to remember:)
	The lectures were so detailed and greatly delivered in a way to where it made it very easy to follow along and understand all materials in the course.
	The most effective was learning how different people perceive the world.
	Good at explaining and good humor
	Every part of this class was very enjoyable. I found all of the assignments to be useful, and I especially enjoyed the Ideas to Ethics essays. I loved how they made you really think through the ways in which you viewed the world, and it forced you to take in different perspectives of your own life and further understand them in a social aspect.
